Madrid, 29th March, 2013

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Master of Architecture in Collective Housing, MCH is a postgraduate professional program of advanced architecture design focused on housing, city and energy studies presented by Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. Students from all nations are trained in specific specialties and have demonstrated a high professional level making important contributions in research projects, winning competitions or taking leadership roles in the relevant international firms.

We have always committed to the highest level of excellence combining teachers of international prestige and a thorough participant selection process in order to make the best out of this course. The program is eminently practical and is structured in Workshops and Specialties; Energy and Sustainability, Housing Projects, Housing Theory, Construction & Technology, Residential Urban Design, Low-Cost Housing, Business Management & International Activity, and Sociology, Economy & Politics.

In the past years, MCH has built a close relationship with great architects such as Dietmar Eberle, Felix Claus, Anne Lacaton, Riken Yamamoto, Frits van Dongen, Hrvoje Njirić, Juan Herreros, Jacob van Rijs, Alejandro Aravena, Andrea Deplazes, Max Risselada, Dick van Gameren or Wiel Arets, who are regular workshop and specialty leaders.

This program is intended for qualified architects and engineers who have completed their bachelor's degree or equal level certificate. The 9th edition of MCH will take place in Madrid (Spain) from January until July 2014 and the master's project will be submitted in September 2014.

I would like to thank you in advance for helping us promote the course by placing the poster attached in a visible position.

Kind regards,
